

COSHOCTON CITY SCHOOLS

Teacher and Staff Appreciation Proclamation

- Whereas* Through their dedicated efforts to ensure our children learn the knowledge and skills needed to be successful in college, careers, and life, Coshocton City Schools' teachers and staff are vital in our community and in building our future; and
- Whereas* Because of the increasing diversity of student needs, our teachers and staff must have academic and teaching skills along with knowledge of child development so they can meet the ever-changing needs of young people in our schools; and
- Whereas* Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, our teachers and staff have provided support to our students and families, the community and each other while remaining flexible, demonstrating perseverance, and remaining positive; and
- Whereas* Teaching is a profession that plays an essential role in preparing our young people to become contributing members of our community thereby strengthening our democracy; and
- Whereas* Our dedicated educators and staff put in countless hours and extra effort to help students achieve, preparing them for further education, the workforce, and their civic duties; and
- Whereas* Long after our school days become memories, teachers continue to influence our lives.
- Therefore, be it resolved that* May 4-8, 2020, be proclaimed Teacher & Staff Appreciation Week, a time to recognize the efforts of educators in our district, and thank the many teachers and staff who work with our children in the Coshocton City Schools.

Adopted this 16th day of April, 2020, by the Coshocton City Schools Board of Education.
