Notification of Billing Entity Update

This Quote is issued by Notable Inc. on behalf of itself and its subsidiary, Tools for Schools (TFS). By signing this Quote, Customer acknowledges and agrees that:

- Geography-Based Billing: To comply with tax, administrative, and regulatory requirements for your country of legal establishment, we are transitioning to a billing model defined by customer location.
- Domestic (US & Canada): Services for customers established in the United States and Canada will be invoiced by Notable Inc.
- International: Services for customers established outside the United States and Canada will be invoiced by Tools for Schools (TFS).
- Entity Status: Please note that while certain legacy operations of Tools for Schools have been consolidated into Notable Inc., Tools for Schools (TFS) remains an active, wholly-owned subsidiary and continues as the primary billing entity for all international accounts.
- Action Required: Customer agrees to update their internal vendor records to reflect the assigned billing entity (Notable Inc. or TFS) and its respective remit-to address as provided in this Quote.
- All existing substantive legal protections, including Data Privacy Agreements (DPAs), remain in force and effect and are hereby adopted by Notable Inc.
- Consolidation: Customer authorizes the consolidation of all active services (including legacy acquired products, legacy Kami products, and new products developed under the established current entity) into a single billing account under the assigned entity noted above.
